Ordinance and Syllabus for B. Com under CBCS Pattern (2017-18 & Onwards)

Bachelor of Commerce (B.Com)

Three-Year (Six-semester) Full-Time Programme

The examination for the Degree of Bachelor of Commerce (B.Com.) shall consist of six semesters.

An academic year shall consist of two semesters:

Odd Semester (I, III & V Semesters): July to December

Even Semester (II, IV and VI Semesters): January to June

The academic calendar for each semester shall be notified by the University well before the commencement of the semester.

Eligibility:

Any candidate having passed the Intermediate (10+2) Examination in any discipline, from a recognized Examination Board, shall be eligible to apply for the course. The other terms and conditions shall be applicable as per University norms.

Students are requested to go through the ordinances of the University relating to the Choice Based Credit System in detail. These ordinances are available on the official website of HNB Garhwal University Srinagar Garhwal. (www.hnbgu.ac.in)

Semester Pattern:

A semester shall normally extend over a period of 15 weeks. Each week shall have 30 hours of instruction including lab/field/project work as applicable. Ideal lecture class size will be limited upto 60 students, tutorial group size may be extended upto 15 students and ideal laboratory practical batch size will be 20 students.

There shall be two sessional tests and one End-semester examination. The sessional test shall carry 30 % of the total marks of the course. The marks of sessional tests shall be taken into account for computation of Grades. There shall be written End-semester examination which shall be of two hours duration carrying 70% of total marks assigned for the course. Evaluation shall be done on a continuous basis, three times during each semester.

Sessional tests may employ one or more assessment tools such as objective tests, assignments, paper presentation, laboratory work, etc suitable to the course. This requires an element of openness. Students shall compulsorily attend two sessional tests. The sessional test as a part of the continuous internal assessment shall be conducted and evaluated by the teacher offering the course.

Credits

The entire course of B. Com. shall be of 132 credit points, which includes 8 credit points for Ability-Enhancement Compulsory Course (AECC), 16 credit points for Skill-Enhancement Elective Course (SEC), 72 credit points for Core Course, 24 credit points for Discipline -Specific Elective (DSE) and 12 credit points for Generic Elective (GE) Course. Credit defines the quantum of contents/syllabus prescribed for a course and determines the number of hours of instruction required per week. Thus, normally in each of the courses, credits shall be assigned on the basis of the number of lectures / tutorials / laboratory work/ project work and other forms of learning required to complete the course contents in a 15 week schedule:

1 Credit = 1 hour of lecture/instruction per week (1 Credit course = 15 hours of lectures per semester). Instruction can be in the form of lectures / tutorials / laboratory work / fieldwork or other forms. In determining the number of hours of instruction required for a course involving laboratory/field-work, 3 hours of laboratory /field work shall be considered equivalent to 1 hour of lecture.

Ability-Enhancement Compulsory Course (AECC)

Paper BC 201: LANGUAGE: English/Hindi/Modern Indian Language

Duration: 2 Hours, Marks: 100 (End Semester 70 Marks + Internal Assessment 30 Marks)

Lectures: 50

Objectives:

The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the theory, fundamentals and tools of communication and to develop in them vital communication skills which should be integral to personal, social and professional interactions. One of the critical links among human beings and an important thread that binds society together is the ability to share thoughts, emotions and ideas through various means of communication: both verbal and non-verbal. In the context of rapid globalization and increasing recognition of social and cultural pluralities, the significance of clear and effective communication has substantially enhanced.

The present course hopes to address some of these aspects through an interactive mode of teaching-learning process and by focusing on various dimensions of communication skills. Some of these are: Language of communication, various speaking skills such as personal communication, social interactions and communication in professional situations such as interviews, group discussions and office environments, important reading skills as well as writing skills such as report writing, note taking etc.

While, to an extent, the art of communication is natural to all living beings, in today's world of complexities, it has also acquired some elements of science. It is hoped that after studying this course, students will find a difference in their personal and professional interactions.

The recommended readings given at the end are only suggestive; the students and teachers have the freedom to consult other materials on various units/topics given below. Similarly, the questions in the examination will be aimed towards assessing the skills learnt by the students rather than the textual content of the recommended books.
