

actual development of higher education and enhancement of knowledge through research and teaching is not possible.

While presiding over the session Prof. N.S. Panwar concluded that, like other fields, in Higher Education also wrong doing is always wrong and in such scenario, punishment is inevitably due. He narrated it with mythological stories of Eklavya and Karn. Thus need of the hour is to owe the professional and moral responsibility by the faculty members in Higher education. The session was coordinated by Dr. Vijay Jyoti Kumar, and ended with vote of thanks to all the resource persons, participants, dignitaries on the dais, media and other staff by Dr. Nitin Sati.
