HEMVATI NANDAN BAHUGUNA (1919-1989)

Hemvati Nandan Bahuguna was born on 25 April, 1919. He received his early education from Garhwal region and later on shaped his academic and political career from Allahabad University. He served as the ninth Chief Minister of undivided Uttar Pradesh from 1973 to 1975. He also held important ministerial positions in the Government of India. He had voiced his concerns over the neglect of education in the remote hilly areas. Along with the people of this region, he struggled for fulfilling the academic and educational requirements which culminated in the establishment of Garhwal University in 1973, at Srinagar, a central town of the Garhwal Himalayas.

As a mark of respect and tribute to the 'son of the soil', in 1989, Garhwal University was renamed as Hemvati Nandan Bahuguna Garhwal University.

HEMVATI NANDAN BAHUGUNA GARHWAL UNIVERSITY
(A CENTRAL UNIVERSITY)
SRINAGAR (GARHWAL)- 246174, Uttarakhand

The University

Hemvati Nandan Bahuguna Garhwal University was established as a State University vide U.P. State Government notification no. (107/865/15/(75) (85y/64 dated 23 November 1973. It has a rare distinction of taking birth through a powerful popular movement during the early seventies in the last century. This movement symbolized the hopes and aspirations of the masses of the Garhwal region for development through the instrument of higher education. The people of this remote mountainous region campaigned for the foundation a University in the small but historic semi-rural town of Srinagar. It was an expression of their quest to empower future generations, overcoming academic, economic and social backwardness, and geographical and environmental constraint, a reassertion of cultural identity and harnessing the local, natural, and human resources for development.

The University has subsequently been converted into a central university by an Act of Parliament, i.e., the Central Universities Act 2009. The University has thus been entrusted with new responsibilities to guide its students, faculty and all other stakeholders to achieve excellence in academics and strives for the all-round development of students. Since its inception, the University has shown commitment to regional and community development inherent in its teaching courses, research agenda and other outreach and extension initiatives. The synergy derived from the circumstances of its genesis still inspires and promotes its vision for the future.

The University, nestled in the lap of Himalayan ranges of the Garhwal region of Uttarakhand, is a residential cum affiliating institution of higher learning. It has jurisdiction over seven districts of the Garhwal region of Uttarakhand.

The University has three campuses distantly located from each other - Birla Campus, Srinagar Garhwal with its Extension at Chauras Campus, B. Gopal Reddy (BGR) Campus, Pauri and Swami Ram Teerth (SRT) Campus Badshahithaul, Tehri. In addition, many colleges and institutes are affiliated with it and spread over different districts of the Garhwal region of Uttarakhand. Undergraduate, Postgraduate and Research programmes are being offered in different disciplines on all three campuses of the University. Besides conventional courses under different streams of studies, the University has introduced some regionally relevant courses that are most important to the mountainous areas.
