About the Institution:

Hemvati Nandan Bahuguna Garhwal (Central University) is situated amidst the picturesque Himalayan ranges in the Garhwal region of Uttarakhand. As a residential cum affiliating institution of higher education, it holds jurisdiction over 7 districts within the Garhwal region. The University boasts three campuses, each located in distinct areas: Birla Campus, along with its extension at Chauras Campus Srinagar Garhwal; B. Gopal Reddy Campus in Pauri; and Swami Ram Teerth (SRT) Campus in Badshahithaul, Tehri. Additionally, the university is affiliated with 121 colleges and institutes spread across the 7 districts of the Garhwal region. Offering a diverse range of UG, PG, and doctoral programs in various disciplines, the university also specializes in delivering regionally relevant courses tailored to the unique needs of mountainous areas.

About the Seminar:

Gender issues continue to be a significant concern in the 21st century society, encompassing a wide range of challenges such as gender inequality, gender under representation and marginalization that impact individuals, communities, and institutions. The present seminar foregrounds gender inclusivity as a fulcrum of discussion and intends to explore myriad topical issues, contemporaneous concerns and modern-day challenges faced by women, tribal women, women with disabilities, sexual minorities, and the LGBT+ community. The primacy of the seminar is to proffer a formal space and platform for intellectuals, researchers, and students to convene and present their ideas and research on gender issues, challenges, possible solutions and the way forward.

Sub-Themes:

- ❖ Historical Context of Gender Inequality
