Dr Narinder Singh (M.A Gold Medalist) is an accomplished academician who started his career as an Assistant Professor in Sociology at DAV College, Chandigarh. He then moved to several other reputed institutions, including Punjabi University, Patiala, the University of Jammu, and the University of Ladakh, as an Assistant Professor. Presently, he is teaching at the Department of Sociology & Social Work, Hemvati Nandan Bahuguna Garhwal (A Central University), Srinagar Garhwal, Uttarakhand. His expertise lies in Tribal Studies, Sociological Theories, Social Stratification, Gender and Society and Indian Society. He has authored three books and more than thirteen research papers to his credit. He deliberately chose to conduct fieldwork in remote areas of the Ladakh region, such as Aryan Valley, Turtuk Valley, and the Drass sector, to understand the bond between the Indian army and civilians. He had been an Honorary Member of the Board of Studies (BOS) in the subject of Anthropology at the University of Ladakh. He got a certificate of Appreciation from the Department of Transfusion Medicine, PGIMER, Chandigarh, & State Blood Transfusion Council, U.T. Chandigarh. He was privileged to serve as an expert for the evaluation of applications for the “Special Call for Collaborative Research Projects on Vision Viksit Bharat@2047” and “Collaborative Research proposals on Longitudinal studies in Social and Human Sciences” at the ICSSR, New Delhi.
